DISTRICT NATIONAL BANK SHARES MOVE

Consistent Purchaser Takes 78 Shares-Bump For Washington Railway.

A total of seventy-eight shares of District National Bank stock were sold today at 1454 on the Washington Stock Exchange, the purchaser being the same broker who has been supporting the stock at this figure for some weeks, though he has occasionally sold small lots at higher figures. The stock was not sold in one block, but was cut up into blocks of ten shares each, with two sales of three shares each and one sale of two shares.

"Uncle Henry" Hurt expects to be the recipient of a fine hat tomorrow, and up to the closing of the stock exchange this afternoon he could not figure out any way by which he could be deprived of it. For, unless W. B. Hibbs offers Mr. Hurt 100 shares of Capital Traction common at 114%, and that offer is refused by Mr. Hurt, Mr. Hibbs must purchase Mr. Hurt a hat, according to the terms of a wager made between the two sixty days ago.

Sixty days ago.

Since that time the price of Capital Traction has dropped from 116½ to 115½, offered prices in each case, but for many weeks now "Uncle Henry" has been calmly bidding 115 for blocks of the stock, with po one offering it to him at that figure. getting that hat tomorrow.
"I needed a new hat. That's why I made the bet," he explained today.

SABENS TO SERVE

Soldier Who Shot and Killed years old, the soldler who shot and killed Ada Haynes in a D street house August 12, 1911, was today sentenced by Chief Justice Clabaugh in Criminal Court No. 1, to serve thirty years in the penitentjary. Sabens was convicted of murder in the first degree, but the Court of Appeals granted a new trial on the theory that the matter of the de-fendant's having been drunk at the time of the crime was not properly presented. There were also other circumstances which warranted the court's accepting a plea of gullty of murder in the second degree. The maximum penalty for second degree murder is life imprisonment and the minimu meentence is twenty years imprisonment. Attorney R. C. L. Moncure, counsel for Satens, made ably, received.

The Senate Banking and Currency Committee will make a report to the Senate in favor of a great Federal reserve bank with branches to be owned by the public and controlled absolutely by the Government without the banks having a hand in it. This is the information which came today from one of the foremost members of the committee.

Officially the comittee has not ade such a decision, but there are any indications that sentiment in the committee is veering in that direction.

This means that there will be a sharp conflict in the Senate, and probably later in the House, over the question whether the country is to have a publicly owned and publicly controlled system with a single head, or whether it will have a regional hank system to be Senate in favor of a great Federal re-tend to do so. If the committee reports for the Federal reserve bank, as well-informed members of it predict, the plan will ucommand powerful Senate support, and it will be a clase question whether the Administration can pre-vent its passage in that body. Frank J. Kent, of the Bankers' Trust Company, of New York, was before the committee today on the subject of foreign exchange.

H. Parker Willis, the real author of the Administration currency bill, which is also called the Glass-Owen bill, attended the session this morning, and gave testimony this afternoon.
